

Regulations regarding the main areas of jurisdiction of the Electoral Census Office in electoral processes are.

The Organic Law from General Electoral Regime (LOREG)

Article 41

4. Autonomous Communities can obtain a copy of the census on a suitable medium for computer processing, after each election, as well as the corresponding rectification thereof.

5. On the two days following the announcement of candidates, the representatives of each candidate may obtain a copy of the census from the corresponding district, ordered by the polling stations and for electronic processing, which may be used exclusively for purposes set out in this law. Alternatively, general representatives may obtain copies of the current census under the same conditions from the districts where their group, federation or coalition is presenting candidates. Likewise, the zone electoral boards shall have a useable copy of the electoral census, corresponding to their sphere.

Electoral Boards, by reasoned decision, may provisionally suspend the delivery of copies of the census representatives mentioned above when the proclamation of applications have been appealed or may be deemed to have incurred in any of the circumstances provided in Article 44.4 of this Law.
