

Weekly calendar of dissemination of short-term and structural statistics 12 November 2007 – 16 November 2007

Today the INE starts with the submission to the media of a weekly calendar of dissemination of its short-term and structural statistics

The publication date of the short-term statistics is fixed. They are all available at 9 am on the established day.

In the case of structural statistics, the date and time announced may be subject to change, which will be duly notified.

This weekly calendar, which will be sent on the last working day of each week, will also be available on the National Statistics Institute website (<http://www.ine.es/daco/daco41/calen.htm>), together with the full version of the statistical availability calendar:

Calendar of short-term statistics

Short-term statistics	Reference period	Publication date
Traveller transport	September 2007	12 November
GDP flash estimate. Quarterly National Accounts	Third Quarter 2007	13 November
Consumer Price Index (CPI) - Harmonised Index of Consumer Prices (HICP)	October 2007	14 November

Calendar of structural statistics

Two sets of structural statistics are scheduled for the reference week:

- Family Budget Survey (FBS) base 2006: This new survey replaces the Continuous Household Budget Survey which, used between 1997 and 2005, introducing a number of methodological changes (annual periodicity, increase in sample size, reduction in the cooperation effort of households, simplification of questionnaires...).

–The 2006 FBS will be published on Friday, 16 November at 11 hours (*)

- Statistics on Annulments, Separations and Divorces 2006: This is the first time these statistics, specifically regarding marriage break-ups, have been carried out. They use socio-demographic information on persons involved in the aforementioned processes.

–The 2006 Statistics on Annulments, Separations and Divorces will be published on Thursday, 15 November at 11 am (*).

(*) The date and time for dissemination of the structural statistics is provisional and may be subject to change.
