The electoral census will be available for consultation from 9 to 16 April

The electoral census will be available for consultation from 9 to 16 April at city halls and also at Provincial Delegations of the Electoral Census Office. Spanish voters residing abroad shall verify their inscription data on these same dates in their respective consulates.

Consultations at city halls can be made through electronic means, after the interested party identifies him-/her- self, or alternatively, through the exhibited electoral lists, if said electronic means are not available.

Voter's claims

The claims period, if any error or omission is noticed regarding the data contained in the electoral census, lapses from 9 to 16 April. Claims shall be presented at city halls, consulates or Provincial Delegations of the Electoral Census Office.

Census cards

The Electoral Census Office is going to submit a census card to each voter, specifying his/her corresponding polling station, along with the electoral room and its address.

Voter's Claims Processing

Provincial Delegations of the Electoral Census Office will attend all consultations within the scope of their competence (census registration, mail voting, electoral rooms, censal cards...) at their offices and also by phone, on the following number: 901 101 .900.

Internet Queries

The National Statistics Institute Webpage (<http://www.ine.es>) has information available on the electoral census, containing data of interest for this consultation, effective census, claims, mail voting, deadlines, legal regulations, and recounting of registered persons. All voters can consult polling station and electoral room data.

Voters holding an acknowledged digital certificate may consult their registration data on the electoral census.
